NEWS RELEASE

Stratasys Announces Appointment of Lilach Payorski as CFO

Company appoints Lilach Payorski, current Stratasys SVP Corporate Finance, as successor to Erez Simha, CFO & COO, who is stepping down as of year-end

Minneapolis & Rehovot, Israel, December 27, 2016 —Stratasys Ltd. (Nasdaq:SSYS), the 3D printing and additive manufacturing solutions company, today announced the appointment of Lilach Payorski, currently Stratasys' Senior Vice President of Corporate Finance, to Chief Financial Officer, effective January 1, 2017, succeeding Erez Simha in this role. Following five years of service, Mr. Simha, CFO & COO of Stratasys, has recently informed the Company of his desire to step down as of year-end. Mr. Simha will remain with the Company to provide operational and financial support to Management as required.

Payorski joined Stratasys in December 2012. Bringing over 20 years of finance experience, Payorski has served in various finance leadership roles over the past 10 years, in positions at PMC Sierra, CheckPoint Software Technologies and Wind River Systems. Earlier in her career, she served as a CPA with Ernst & Young LLP both in Israel and later in Palo Alto, CA. Payorski holds a B.A. in Accounting and Economics from Tel Aviv University.

"I am very pleased that we have a strong internal successor in Lilach Payorski" said Ilan Levin, Chief Executive Officer of Stratasys. "As SVP of Corporate Finance, she has proven to be a key leader within Stratasys and has the full confidence of me and the board of directors in assuming the role of CFO. I am confident in the finance organization's ability to smoothly manage through this leadership transition."

"During his five year tenure, Erez has made very significant contributions to the company, first in his role as chief financial officer and then broadening his role to include operations as well," added Levin. "During that time, he has built a strong infrastructure in both finance and operations, and helped the company evolve its capital structure and capital allocation approach to support our objectives. I thank him for his years of service to the company."
